MELROSE PUBLIC LIBRARY
MELROSE, MASS.

PUBLISHERS' CARD.

We take great pleasure in presenting to our patrons and th general public the current issue, No. 15 in the regular series, of th MELROSE DIRECTORY.

It is our hope that it may meet with the hearty approval o those whom we have been trying to serve.

While we are grateful for the patronage given to the advertisin department, to which we call special attention, it is scarcely necessar to state the great difficulties and expense attending the compilin and publishing of a directory, and since such difficulties and expens are exceptionally heavy, may we not ask for increased patronage an support in the future?

We would again remind our readers of the care necessary i searching for unfamiliar names, as there are no fixed rules for th spelling and pronunciation of proper names. Do not decide that certain name is not in the book until you know how the person him self spells it.

We extend our thanks to all those who have assisted the publ cation either by their patronage or aid to our canvassers in th collection of information.

Respectfully,

LITTLEFIELD DIRECTORY PUBLISHING CO.,
